

THINGS TO DO --- RECREATION

Crystal Bay Enjoy boating, kayaking, Fishing, Water Skiing and more on Hidden Lake most of the year. Many enjoy social activities in the neighborhood including the Book Club, Happy Hours at the Pavilion in the summer, Spring Picnic and Fall Chili Cookoff. Kayak Paddlers meet often in the summer for adventures around the coves of Hidden Lake. The Association also hosts a Christmas holiday dinner in December at one of the nearby restaurants.

Theater/Arts Greenwood has a variety of local performing arts and choir groups including concerts/shows at Lander Performing Arts Building on the Lander University Campus, the Greenwood Community Theater performs through out the year with local actors of all ages. You will also be able to find entertainments at the Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC; the historical Abbeville Opera House in Abbeville, SC; Newberry Opera House, close by brings in various band groups and performers and going to Greenville to the Peace Center and Bon Secours Wellness Arena for bigger theater attractions and shows.

Community Festivals Greenwood is host for the annual Festival of Flowers featuring some very renowned topiary figures and community activities for most of the month of June. In July the Festival of Discovery BBQ festival is center stage for famous Kansas City BBQ competitors and local competitors. There is lots of smokin' good BBQ and Ribs and entertainment for a hot weekend festivity.

Laurens SC hosts Squealin' on the Square in the fall each year at the Courthouse Square including more Kansas City BBQ, arts and crafts, kid's rides, petting zoo, and local entertainment.

Newberry SC has a fall Oktoberfest, an authentic German cuisine with festivities for the whole family.

Golf This is a small list of some of the favorite golf courses in the area, including Greenwood Golf Club, The Links at Stoney Pointe, Hunters Creek, The Patriot at Grand Harbor and Star Fort Golf Club in Ninety Six. Greenwood County Club and Par Three West and Cokesbury hills all host a good day on the greens.

Education Lander University, Piedmont Technical College, Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC and Erskine College in Due West, SC. Greenwood has public high schools and the G. Frank Russell Career Center and a private Christian High School.

This is a general information list only. Please know that Crystal Bay HOA does not endorse these businesses but have listed them for local resources for your reference only.